MC

FLORENTINE

Mac,

Boy. Pretty good so far. Just cutting to the store was fun. Coach finally figured us out, don't you think? Miss Hanner
remember us - surely.
You sure are a fine fellow to have on your side. Be seeing you

Our bewilderment and excitement,
our sadness and joy,
our failure and success.

It is a time when we dispell our fears and fulfill our dreams.
This is McClenaghan, 1967!

The 1967 Florentine

ALMA MATER

"To Florence High, our Florence High,
We lift our song of praise
That echoes clear from year to year
Through all succeeding days.
In thee we find our guiding star
To service in the world:
As soldiers we seek victory
With banners all unfurled."

—Miss Emily Brothers.

DEDICATION

For your enthusiasm for life, which spreads to each of us;

For treating us as individuals;

For teaching us that hard work accomplishes more than wishful thinking;

For your dedication to THE FLORENTINE,

We dedicate THE FLORENTINE to you,

At one a. m. on April 22, 1966, the Class of 1967 learned of Mr. Lever's sincere interest in what the students of this high school are doing. Staying to finish a Junior-Senior is above the call of duty for any high school principal. This is not an isolated incident but an example of the spirit of co-operation we have received for three years from MR. J. CARLYLE LEVER.

CLASS HISTORY

JEAN INGRAM
Class Historian

From the beginning to the beginning . . . from the beginning of learning to the beginning of adult life . . . this is the story of our school years, the record of our school life.

We, the Senior Class of McClenaghan High School, wistfully look back on what are probably the most important twelve years of our lives.

Our first years were spent in the various elementary schools throughout the city. How wonderful it was to be able to read and write. The first six years passed quickly. Year after year we grew in stature and wisdom, and we met friends that would remain with us through the years.

Finally we were ready for the big step to junior high. It was here that we began to show the first signs of what we would be. Several adjustments had to be made since we were in a new school, but we became accustomed to them soon and settled down to business by electing Clete Skipper to the office of Treasurer of the Student Council at Moore.

As eighth graders, Bet Dargan was Secretary at Poynor, and Bobby Alderman was Treasurer. Ray Tripp won the position of Treasurer at Moore.

As the eighth grade drew to a close, we looked forward to the ninth grade with great pleasure. We would be the leaders of our schools. Here we began to show the capabilities of our class as a whole.

There were signs of promise in the field of leadership as evidenced by the Student Council officers at both Poynor and Moore. Bet Dargan was elected President and Linda Harrell, Vice-President, at Poynor. Moore elected Ray Tripp, President, and Ann Cothran, Vice-President.

Further hints of our ability to be an outstanding class were given when Jean Ingram received the Poynor Memorial Award, and Bet Dargan and Jimmy Turner were honored with the American Legion Awards at Poynor. Recipients of the Awards at Moore were Susie Floyd and Ray Tripp.

As the ninth grade neared its end, we anxiously awaited the following September when we would enter high school.

As sophomores we quickly got into the swing of things by electing Ray Tripp, President of the Sophomore Class; Clete Skipper, Vice-President; Bet Dargan, Secretary; and Pat Alexander, Treasurer. Representing our class on the Student Council were Stuart Greenberg, Eddie Gunn, and Jean Ingram.

In the realm of beauty, Bet Dargan, Sabie Moorer, and Susan Smith were the Sophomore attendants on the May Court. Frances Gregg was chosen Miss Sophomore.

Before we knew it another summer had passed, and we were Juniors. With our Junior year came new projects and responsibilities. Our class officers were Ray Tripp, President; Johnny Rhem, Vice-President; Pat Alexander, Secretary; and Bet Dargan, Treasurer. Johnny Rhem served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Council, and our Junior representatives were Sandy Bridges, Eddie Gunn, and Jean Ingram.

In April we put forth our biggest effort as a class to present the best Junior-Senior ever. To follow the theme, it certainly had all the beauty of "Moonlight and Roses." The dance was a complete success under the direction of our class officers and our sponsors—Mrs. Anne McNair, Mrs. Maria Perry, Mr. Paul Skoko, and Mrs. Elma Stokes.

Gracing the May Day festivities our Junior year were Pat Alexander, Frances Gregg, and Wana Kaye Hutchinson. Bet Dargan was elected Miss Junior.

Selected to go to Boys' State in June were Sandy Bridges, Gaines Foster, George Hobieka, David Moody, Johnny Rhem, and Robert Wells. Betty McArver was our representative to Girls' State, and she was also chosen Miss Hi Miss.

Leading our class from an academic standpoint were the marshals: Lola Hepburn, Sybil Rimer, Paul Stock, Betty McArver, Billy McCrary, Susie Floyd, Jane Lewis, Jill Whisnant, Gayle Medlin, and Ann Lewis with Robert Wells as Chief Marshal and Shawn Evans, Assistant Chief.

As the end of our Junior year drew near, we began to look ahead and elected the officers to lead us in our final year at McClenaghan. Johnny Rhem was chosen to lead the school as President of the Student Body, and Bet Dargan was elected as Vice-President. We chose as our class officers Ray Tripp, President; Jean Ingram, Vice-President; Pat Alexander, Secretary; and Cile Hutchinson, Treasurer. Sherry Stith, Gaines Foster, Ray Tripp, and Pat Alexander represented our class on the Executive Board, which was formerly called the Student Council.

With pride and confidence in our class we unhesitatingly stepped into the ruling position of Seniors of McClenaghan High School. With full force we let the Student Body know that this group of seniors was not an ordinary class, but one that would bring honor to our school.

Our first great achievement as Seniors was the Magazine Campaign under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Hastings, Senior Class Sponsor; co-captains Martha Smith and Terrill McKissick; and the class officers. Our theme for the campaign was "Jack and the Beanstalk," and we certainly obtained our golden egg by surpassing our $18,000 goal and setting an all-time high record of $26,240. We not only set a new Florence record but a new Southern-U.S.A. record. Leading our sales was Debby Summerford. Right behind our top salesman, in the order of their sales, were Crysta Hutchinson, Gaines Foster, Mary Marshall, and Jean Ingram. In addition to these who collected over $300 in magazine subscriptions, there were sixteen others who sold over $200 worth.

We knew that we were really seniors when we received our class rings in November. A coke party was planned by our principal, Mr. J. Carlyle Lever, and our ring sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Montgomery. It was truly an exciting event for the seniors.

Shortly after the Magazine Campaign, it was time for the Homecoming Activities, which were successfully planned by Dayle Marchette, President of the Pep Club, and the club's sponsors, Miss Ann Shuler and Miss Beverly Polson. The homecoming parade was one of the best yet with floats from each of the classes and many of the school clubs. At the halftime of the game, Wana Kaye Hutchinson was crowned Homecoming Queen, and Dayle Marchette was the Honor Attendant.

Because of the spirit of the Student Body and the determination and hard work of our teams we had an exciting year in sports. Herman Cook was voted the Most Valuable Player on the basketball team. The Ira S. Rainwater Trophy was awarded to Sterling Allen.

Our cheerleaders did an excellent job this year. In addition to creating spirit for the Student Body; they also instilled confidence and determination in the teams. The senior cheerleaders were Bet Dargan, Lynn Grimsley, Wana Kaye Hutchinson, Dayle Marchette, Sherry Stith, and Cile Hutchison.

In the Powder Puff Bowl which was planned by Martha Moose, President of the Girl's Block "F" Club, the underclassmen had a streak of luck and won by a slim margin. However, the Senior girls did not mind losing, for they all knew that beauty is much better than brawn. Terrill "Mischievous Menace" McKissick reigned as the Queen.

Finally Christmas holidays arrived, and all of us were glad for a break after being in school for almost four months. The holidays were over before we knew it, and soon exams were upon us. Then we realized that we had only one semester left in our high school career, and these last four months were to be very busy ones for us.

The Yellow Jacket kept us up to date on school activities and other interesting items throughout the year. Becky Clark and Ann Lewis did an excellent job as co-editors. Mrs. Patty Howell was the sponsor for the newspaper.

This year we had one of the loveliest May Courts ever with Bet Dargan reigning as Queen of May and Dayle Marchette as her Maid of Honor. The court was graced by the Senior beauties Susan Floyd, Wendy Kirby, Mary Marshall, and Janis Wilson.

Betty McArver was chosen by the school to be Miss FLORENTINE, and Wendy Kirby was named Miss Senior.

On Class Night the Senior Superlatives were introduced, and the 1967 FLORENTINES were distributed. Our wonderful FLORENTINE was a tribute to the tremendous effort of Miss Mary Joyce Shealy and the annual staff. Leading the annual staff were Sandy Bridges, Editor-in-Chief; Betty McArver, Associate Editor; Gaines Foster, Business Manager; and Sherry Stith, Assistant Business Manager.

Looking back over the past nine months, we realize how much we have done and how successful we have been. Directing our school and representing our class in various activities and honors were Johnny Rhem, Mr. King Teen; Pat Alexander, Miss DAR and President of the Gold Anchor Club; Jean Ingram, Class Historian and President of the Green Anchor Club; Sandy Bridges, President of the Junior Exchange Club; Gaines Foster, President of the Key Club; Bet Dargan, Junior Exchange Club Sweetheart; Wana Kaye Hutchinson, Key Club Sweetheart; Jimmy Turner, President of the National Honor Society; Neil Harper, President of the Hi-Y; Cile Hutchinson, President of the Tri-Hi-Y; Dayle Marchette, President of the Pep Club; Sterling Allen, President of the Boys' Block "F" Club; Martha Moose, President of the Girls' Block "F" Club; Susie Floyd, Gaines Foster, Ann Lewis, and Robert Wells, Furman Scholars; Sherry Stith, Class Prophet; Ray Tripp, Class Lawyer; Sandy Bridges, Billy McCrary, and Paul Stock, finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

These and all the unnamed ones are those that make the Class of 1967 what it is—the best class ever to enter McClenaghan High School. What our future holds for us is unknown. We have received the best possible foundation from our parents, our friends, and especially from the teachers of this fine institution. They have shown us the true path to follow. Taking our memories with us and going forward to meet our destinies, we leave school with mixed emotions—not wanting to leave behind the friends and familiar faces, but eager to face the world and to make this school proud to have had us, the Class of '67, as graduates.

Football at McClenaghan affects everyone. The coaches, players, and spectators feel the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. The football spirit spreads like a fever and is an essential part of our school. The excitement, the thrills, and our victories over archrivals Darlington and Sumter, made 1967 a successful year for the Yellow Jackets.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The McClenaghan Yellow Jackets, under the direction of Coach Crane, had their best season in quite a few years during the 1966-67 campaign. Beating Dreher twice, the first time in a decade, and winning twice over A. C. Flora; the Jackets ended the season with a 16-4 record and the Region Four Championship. The team then journeyed to Spartanburg for the State AAA Tourney. Although they lost their first game, McClenaghan has the right to be proud of such a fine team. Herman Cook was selected the "Most Valuable Player."

TRACK

LADSON CUBBAGE, Coach

The McClenaghan High 1967 Track team is expected to have another successful season. Their hopes lie with a core of returning lettermen and many promising newcomers. Both groups are dedicated to having a successful season.

The team's returning lettermen are: Frankie Pridgeon, Jimmy Thames, Bob O'Harra, and Hugh Bridgers. Coach Cubbage is very pleased with his team.

Track has become a popular sport at McClenaghan in the last few years. This year's team should continue this precedent.

TENNIS

In the last few years Coach Bert Stafford's tennis teams have become a power in this area. After last year's undefeated record, the team has high hopes for this year. The season will be climaxed by a trip to the state tournament.

The team is led by returning lettermen Ben Gregg, Grigsby Arnette, Jimmy Gray, Archie Smith, Billy Averette, and Graham Lawrence.

BERT STAFFORD, Coach

TO THE FUTURE

We have come in search of wisdom. Some we have found in the classroom; some we have found through our associations with other people; much more has eluded us.

Graduation is at once an ending and a beginning; a triumph and a challenge. We must go forth, out of the gates of youth, to mold a world for ourselves and our children.

Our years in high school have given us tools; now we must build our world. Let us do it with dignity and a concern for all mankind. And then, with God's help, may we find the wisdom which has eluded us.

Mac,

Well to my big brother who has helped me pass History this year. I must say it has been a pleasure getting to know you this year. Stay as nice as you are now and I'm sure you will go far in life.

Good luck

Mac,

We sure have had some wonderful times this year.

That graduation was about the best of all. If you had not have been there, I would have never made it. I don't know that I am now.

Mac, have a real nice summer, (I will see you in summer school) and don't get into any trouble.

Gold Medallion

When you buy or build specify a Gold Medallion Home, and step up to the joy of All-Electric living. The whole family will love it.

In a Gold Medallion Home clean, flameless electricity keeps you warm and cooks your meals, heats the water and gives you light for living. And it works in so many other ways to make housekeeping chores easier and living better.

P.S. CP&L's rate for all-electric homes has been reduced four times in the last six years. Electric living is cheaper than ever.
